FOR CITIZENSHIP

JAMES BOYD HIKES ACROSS DES-ERT THAT HE MAY SECURE HIS PAPERS

After walking all the way from Manhattan that he might appear be fore the special United States naturalization official, James Boyd, a canny Scot from the northern placer camp, qualified as having the necessary intelligence and acquitted himself with honor during the period he was being questioned by the examiner. The requested naturalization papers were forthcoming and as soon as the second papers are granted Boyd will be eligible to fill citi-

The examination of applicants for citizenship continued throughout yesterday afternoon and a night session was held last night at the court Of the 24 applicants, but six passed the examination. Several were granted additional time in which to prepare themselves, and a number failed to put in an appear-

Those who successfully passed the tests were John Noonan, Louis Cafferty, Thomas McLaughlin, Rasmus Bechman Sorenson, Andrew Francis Fayne and James Boyd.

SAYS TAX BILL HAS PASSED ACCORDING TO HOYLE

Among the technical points raised in the legislative work, one came about last evening when Senator Mack filed a protest against the constitutionality of the tax commission bill. He claimed that it had not been passed according to Hoyle or Roberts or somebody else, and filed a protest that was made of record. The same action was taken in the assembly by Messrs. Shore and Russell. The history of the bill, however, shows everything regular, which about clinches this important piece of legislation and puts Nevada on the progressive list and no mistake.-

GIRL FLIES 108 MILES

LOS ANGELES, March 25.-W. Leonard Bonney, the aviator, made a flight yesterday in his Duperdessen monoplane, with Miss Margaret Stahl of New York as his passenger, to San Diego. His actual flying time for the 108 miles was 108 minutes. He made only one stop, replenishing his fuel supply.
